Well, our four weeks at Mission Training International (MTI) have ended and we are back on the road.

Weeks 1 & 2 were spent with a heavy focus on language study. We had missionaries heading to many parts of the world, so the focus was not on one specific language but on learning the skills to make any language learning a bit easier. This had two major parts; pronunciation of sounds that do not normally appear in English and tools to help learn language. I (Tim) found this part very challenging but also very encouraging to see how well these tools worked after just a couple of weeks.

In weeks 3 & 4, the focus changed to preparing us for the challenges that we will face as we prepare to head over and live on the field. Topics included dealing with stress, exiting and entering cultures, grief/loss, what kids experience when moving and saying proper goodbyes. There were many tears shed and God moved in all of us during these 2 weeks to help us all prepare better for what we will face during our time overseas.

Although these 4 weeks were challenging, God used these times to prepare all 6 of us for the move ahead. Now that this time is done we are back on the road, raising partners for our ministry.

GLOBAL STRATEGY

CHURCH OF GOD MINISTRIES

Making New Partners

In the last few weeks since finishing our time at MTI, we have been back on the road. In the past, we would generally keep our kids at home and one or both of us would fly down to a region and visit with pastors and churches. This season is going to look a little different as our whole family will be travelling together. Our first state to visit was Texas after a brief stop in Shawnee, OK. We had many great meetings and had a chance to preach in Tyler, TX. We were so encouraged by the welcome we had in Texas. Our next destination was Shreveport, LA. We came because Jenn met a couple from there back in June. We were unsure what we would have to do here, but we ended up sharing in 2 churches, a school and connecting with 3 other churches.

Lastly we will be connecting with churches in Wichita and St Louis before ending up in Anderson, IN.

When we get this question, people are not usually inquiring where on the globe we are, but rather, how much we have left to raise. THE END IS IN SIGHT! We are around 66% funded and making the push to get the last bit in.

We need twenty-seven partners of varying amounts who could help us finish off our fundraising. Some of those partners will be churches, able to give bigger amounts. Others may be a family or individual who can sign on and commit to regular giving of $100/month so that we are able to go to Thailand. Every little bit helps.

Would you consider helping us reach our goal by signing up today?

Where are you at?
